There is a good deal of business in this campaign in his behalf.

Probably people are generally aware of the fact that Mr. Chapman has incurred the hostility of a number of powerful interests since he has been Mayor. He has been looking out too sharply for the city's welfare and has not shut his eyes to certain schemes that were on foot to aggrandize the promoters without regard to the interests of the people in general. All the promoters of these schemes are "booming" Mr. McCarthy. They have tried Mr. Chapman and found him proof against their arguments and blarney. With him in the mayor's chair they know that they will have no chance with any scheme that may be inimical in the slightest degree to the interests of the city. They know too that they will pull wool over his eyes. Therefore they do not want him there. In this fact lies the secret of their zeal to elect Mr. McCarthy.

We do not imagine that Mr. McCarthy has given them any hint that he will be willfully blind to their schemes. He is too honorable a man to make a trade of any such nature. But any body is preferable to him at this juncture for the Mayor's chair than Mr. Chapman. His hope is that a new man may not be so familiar with the situation as he is, and may not, therefore, see the ultimate purpose of their machinations. With Mr. Chapman they know that they cannot succeed. With Mr. McCarthy they don't know that they can, but they hope that they may. They prefer the uncertainty of Mr. McCarthy to the disagreeable certainty of Mr. Chapman.

What is this campaign fund that is being so rapidly accumulated to be used for? Does anybody suppose it is for legal purposes? Does anyone suppose the intention is to devote it to holding meetings and hiring brass bands and circulating documents to the detriment of the city? Is it for the purpose of electing Mr. McCarthy? If there is such an one his innocence is to be pitted. No, there will be no meetings held, nor brass bands employed, nor documents circulated. Nevertheless this campaign fund will be felt, and if the people do not bestir themselves they may find themselves before they know it in the grasp of certain soulless corporations.
